As we, the Seniors, leave these halls and school days behind us, we venture into a new life. Everything will be a new experience. We will then be continuing or striving to reach our goals that we made in high school. We will always have memories of our school days and the days ahead will be a challenge.

We dedicate this volume of the Citadel to the young men and women who are leaving the halls of their school as students for the last time. We wish them the best of luck in their future. May they strive to accomplish new and better things as they grow into adulthood, from this day forward.

Students seem eager to start a new day . . .

But even more eager to finish it!

We Will Remember Our School Play

Miss Studebaker, Our Director

This year, under the direction of Miss Studebaker, we were introduced to a theater-in-the-round, which was something new and interesting. This staging made it easier to hear the actors in the three one-act plays because the stage was completely surrounded by the audience. We would like to commend Miss Studebaker for her efforts and all the people who helped make the plays a success.

SENIORS

In this past year at Huntertown High School quite a few Seniors have suddenly realized that they must really start deciding "what comes next". After this year we will no longer be coming back to the protective walls of our alma mater. Some of us realized too late we should have tried harder. Some of us will go on to college, others will go directly into a job. Our school also has realized a need, and it has opened the door wider for students to obtain scholarships. We have also matured in our thinking, because we know we must so that our parents and our school will be proud of us.

Our Senior class has had many activities this year. Among these was a Senior Dinner held at the Golden Dragon which was, in a way, our final all-Senior get together. The Junior-Senior Prom was quite an event to remember. A yearbook was purchased for each member of the graduating class as a symbol of our last year together. It will also help us remember one another and some of our good times, not only this year but in years gone by.

That's a pretty big order, but don't bet Cherry's club won't fill it. It has speed, size, experience, defensive ability and an abundance of good shooters. What more does a basketball team need?

Cherry, a graduate of Butler University, added, "The boys have grown up a bit since last season and they played basketball all Summer long. That spirit is great, in fact my problem now is keeping the boys in check until the season opens on Nov. 6. I've never coached a team which was this far advanced at this stage of practice."

What do you see up there, Bill?

The Most Valuable Basketball Player Award was enlarged this year so that two of our Wildcats could be honored. Gay Martin, one of the leading scorers, often added two valuable points at a crucial moment with his outside jump shot. A very hard-working player, Ned Miller, just never quit. He continued to be a leading scorer throughout the tournaments and was named to the sectional first team.

Come on Ned, those two points are needed!

Although there was a late start this year, the choral speaking group did get organized this year. In spite of this delay, however, they got right down to work and made the most of their time. Much fun along with much work was acquired during their weekly meetings.

This group, under the direction of Miss Studebaker, is truly an asset to our school and its program.

These are our office help: Leroy DeWitt, Jim Shookman, June Roller, Janice Black, Jean Demske, Faye Buckmaster, Karen Sherwood.

These hands help care for the many books on our library shelves. The librarians for this year were: Gayle Fleming, Sandy Grossman, Charles Disbrow, Larry Shepherd, Florence Alday, Linda Olson, Joseph Clark, Ruth DeHaby, Miss Enley, Tom Royer, Don Lindley, Sue Franklin, Raymond Till, Diane Aukerman, Joyce Kelshiemer, and Paulene Plummer.

Under the watchful eye of this statue, our library continues to operate.

The Student Council sponsored the Ping Pong Tourney this year and they did a fine job. The winners of the Huntertown games competed in the County Tourney at Lafayette Central and Penny Noble, a senior, brought home the Championship trophy for the girls' singles.

Noon hour brings the students relief from the lingering hours in class.

With graduation drawing nearer, Jac and Ned feel they have been "penned up" too long.

These trophies bring back memories.

The girls' volleyball team is preparing for the tournament.

ADVERTISING

The Staff wishes to thank the advertisers in this year's Citadel. In order to show our appreciation to them, every student or adult who reads this annual should take notice of the ad pages and patronize the businesses of tnese advertisers. For they are the ones who help make the publication of the Citadel possible.
